

CALL FOR POSTERS

The National University of Public Service (NUPS) together with the related Departments of the Association of Hungarian PhD and DLA Candidates, with the Advanced Colleges of the NUPS and with the MHTT Kápolnai Pauer István Youth Club are organizing their traditional poster competition, called

Gateway of Science - Poster Contest and Exhibition

We are proud to announce that one section of the poster competition is part of the European Cyber Security Month (ECSM) again.

The event is a great opportunity for young researchers to publish their results. Best posters will be exhibited, and best BA and MA applicants may get an opportunity to present their research in an interdisciplinary PhD conference at NUPS in November. Printing costs are covered by the organizers.

Exhibition will be located at the
National University of Public Service, Budapest

Opening ceremony will start at
30th October 2018 14:00

Deadline for application and poster submission:

10th October 2018 23:59

Application and submission is possible through this form:
